

Jennifer Sargent
Memphis College of Art
1930 Poplar Avenue
Memphis, TN 38104
www.mca.edu
jsargent@mca.edu

Biography

Jennifer Sargent received a BA in woven textiles from Middlesex University, London, England and an MFA in Fibers from Arizona State University, Tempe, AZ. She worked at the renowned Scheuer Tapestry Studio in New York and now teaches at Memphis College of Art where she is an Associate Professor and Director of Exhibitions and Lectures.

Her work has been exhibited nationally and has been published in Fiberarts Design Book Seven and numerous textile periodicals. Recent selected exhibitions include:

Solo Exhibitions

Memphis College of Art Gallery, Playhouse On The Square, Memphis, TN

Joan Derryberry Gallery, Roaden University Center, Cookeville, TN

Group Exhibitions

Small Expressions Tennessee State Museum, Nashville, TN

Fiberart International 2010 Society for Contemporary Craft, Pittsburgh, PA, travelling to Memorial Art Gallery, University of Rochester, NY and San Francisco Museum of Craft & Design, San Francisco, CA

American Tapestry Biennial 8 Elder Gallery, Lincoln, NE, travelling to American Textile History Museum, Lowell, MA

Sargent's work is in private and public collections including the Tennessee State Museum, the City Collection of Memphis, Christian Brothers University and the Wichita Center for the Arts. She has been awarded an Artist Residency at the Vermont Studio Center in Johnson VT and an Individual Artist Fellowship from the Tennessee Arts Commission.